Introduction

Welcome to Your Local Little Black Book, the first seasonal edition, Autumn 2019.

Created by two local mums who have lived and worked in the area for many years, who are passionate to support our local businesses and services.

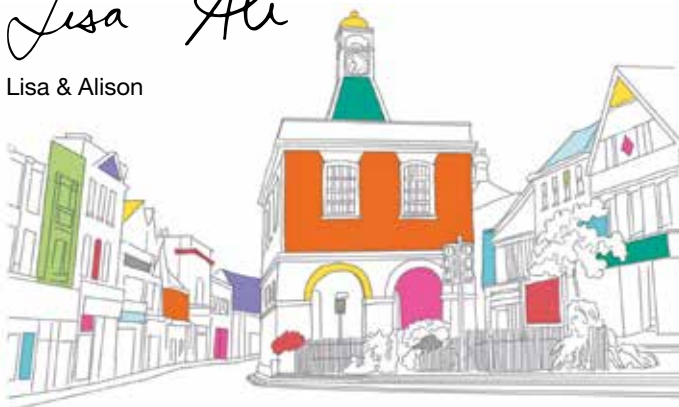

We are lucky to have such a charming High Street, offering unique and wonderful independents alongside the brands we all know and love.

Our aim is to keep our community growing and thriving, working together to support and promote those more established with those who are still growing.

Presenting you with a fresh perspective to rediscover what Reigate can offer you and your families, one page at a time.

BOX MAKER

Combining his skilled use of Japanese tools, Japanese ideology and designs, and his study of the Arts and Crafts movement, Andrew Poder creates highly individual boxes using only the finest traditional English hardwoods lined with textiles and aromatic cedar.

His high-end boxes are the ideal gift for many occasions: a wedding, retirement, a special birthday, or possibly a gift to yourself for your own enjoyment. Along with his own creations, many commissioned works have been undertaken - including two pieces for the royal family.

As a member of the Sussex Guild, Andrews work is exhibited at their craft shows around the Sussex area, plus his work can now be seen and purchased at the Reigate Pop Up shop.

Living and working in Dorking all his life, the quality emanating from his workshop is without compromise as his customers old and new will happily confirm.
